TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

We were referred to Mr Brett Powell by an expert consultant (a Master of Applied Science: Building Inspector) from whom we sought advice when faced with a building litigation to be heard by VCAT.

Mr Powell's prompt response, knowledge of the building trade, his experience, attention to detail and good humour gave us the confidence to engage his services.

He advised us of the potential costs, which we thought fair and reasonable, and indicated the timeline. He kept us informed at all times.

He grasped the facts of the complex case quickly and thoroughly; understood the situation and what was at stake and gave considered advice. He conducted the case with authority and confidence.

We are indebted to Mr Powell and would not hesitate to recommend him for a building litigation/dispute.

The matter was dismissed in our favour.
