My building case was extremely long (a number of years), complicated, complex and involved many players. Brett was approached after being recommended by a lawyer I was in contact with. His expertise in construction law, insurance cases and the VCAT process was invaluable. He helped me navigate the system and alleviate many years of stress. He always stepped up to the plate and assured me that I shouldn't take on the worry as that was his job. He knew the system so well that he anticipated many of the issues that came up regarding the other parties involved that were beyond our control. He was always able to bring it back to focus on the best possible outcome for me. In the end we had a very good result – much better than most of the cases I hear about. I have since recommended Brett to others and would not hesitate to call on him again if needed.
